

Professor Zachary Zimmer

Professor

Department of Family Studies and Gerontology

Mount Saint Vincent University

Biography

Zachary Zimmer is a Professor of Family Studies and Gerontology and a Tier I Canada Research Chair in Global Ageing and Community at Mount Saint Vincent University in Halifax, Canada, where he also directs the Global Ageing and Community Initiative. His research applies global demographic perspectives to concerns of health and wellness of older persons worldwide. He publishes in a cross-disciplinary range of journals including those focusing on gerontology, sociology, demography, public health, medicine, and epidemiology.