

Professor Emiko Ochiai
Professor of Sociology, Kyoto Sangyo University
Emeritus Professor, Kyoto University

Emiko Ochiai (落合恵美子) is a Professor of Sociology at Kyoto Sangyo University and Emeritus Professor at Kyoto University. Her areas of interest are gender, family, care, and intimate relations from historical and comparative perspectives. She has also devoted herself to the creation of common foundations for international research collaboration within and on Asia. Her publications include Asia's New Mothers (co-editorship, Global Oriental, 2008), Asian Women and Intimate Work (co-editorship, Brill, 2013), Transformation of the Intimate and the Public in Asian Modernity (co-editorship, Brill, 2014), Asian Families and Intimacies (4 vols., co-editorship, Sage, 2021), and Japanizing Japanese Families (co-editorship, Brill, 2023). She is the Editor-in-Chief for The Intimate and the Public in Asian and Global Perspectives series from Brill.