

Mr. Victor Kwok

Deputy Research Director, Our Hong Kong Foundation

Victor Kwok oversees Education, Youth, Technology and Greater Bay Area research at Our Hong Kong Foundation. He is a member of the HKSAR Government Committee on Innovation, Technology and Industry Development, Steering Committee on Promotion of Vocational and Professional Education and Training (VPET) and Qualifications Framework (QF) and a co-opt member of the Yuen Long District Council. He led and published numerous policy research reports on education, youth, technology, and Greater Bay Area, and advocated a series of actionable recommendations to raise talent competitiveness, drive industry growth, and to respond to societal development needs. Victor engages in extensive policy advocacy work, as a contributor to the Futures of Education initiative by the UNESCO International Commission, and as a speaker and panellist in various local and international educational summits, television, and other media channels. He is also a content contributor to leading local press and academic journals.

Prior to joining OHKF, Victor was Assistant Vice President at the Investment Banking Division of Barclays, where he devised structured derivatives solutions for multinational corporate clients across Southeast Asia and Greater China.

Victor has deep passion for community service. He is a member of the Liaoning Youth Federation. He is invited by the Chinese University of Hong Kong and the Federation of Self-financing Tertiary Education as an advisor to numerous programmes. In addition, as Honorary Secretary of the Hong Kong Aerospace Leaders Association, he organised an aerospace programme involving 8 secondary schools and over 200 students, assisted schools to set up aerospace laboratories and update their STEM curricula.

Victor graduated from the Chinese University of Hong Kong with a BBA in Global Business Studies, and obtained a Master of Public Administration from the University of Hong Kong. He scored 10 A's in the Hong Kong Certificate of Education Examination. He is a Chartered Financial Analyst and has received Executive Leadership Education from the Harvard Business School.
