

Orlando Woods

Professor of Geography

Associate Dean (Research and Postgraduate Programmes)

Director, SMU Urban Institute

Pillar Lead, Urban Experiences

Singapore Management University

Orlando Woods is Professor of Geography and Director of the Urban Institute at Singapore Management University. His interdisciplinary research agenda spans urban studies, critical infrastructure studies, and communications and new media. Empirically, his work focusses on South and Southeast Asia. He holds BA and PhD degrees in Geography from University College London and the National University of Singapore respectively.