MSocSc(Pop&PA) Programme Director
Department of Sociology, Faculty of Social Sciences
Associate Director, Research Hub of Population Studies
The University of Hong Kong

Guy Abel is a statistical demographer who works predominantly with migration data to better predict past and future movement patterns and gain a richer understanding of how migration varies by core demographic variables such as age, sex, and education. Before joining the HKU Department of Sociology, he was a professor at the Asian Demographic Research Institute based at Shanghai University and a researcher at the International Institute of Applied Systems Analysis in Austria.

He has also worked as a consultant for Facebook, the International Organization for Migration, the International Labour Organization and the World Bank and taught courses on using R at the KOSTAT-UNFPA Summer Seminar on Population.
