

Judy Chen, JP
Chairman of Hong Kong Committee for UNICEF

Judy Chen Qing is a distinguished public servant, philanthropist, and global leader, with extensive experience across international diplomacy, sustainable development, youth empowerment, and public service.

She currently serves as Chairman of the Hong Kong Committee for UNICEF; Convenor and Co-Founder of the Bridge Institute; Honorary Chairman of the Ocean Park Conservation Foundation; Member of the Hong Kong-ASEAN Foundation Advisory Council; Member of the Chief Executive Election Committee of the HKSAR; Permanent Honorary Chairman of the Hong Kong Huajing Society; and a Justice of the Peace appointed by the HKSAR Government. She is also Executive Director of the One Earth Alliance, Council Member of the Western Returned Scholars Association (WRSA), President-elect of the WRSA Entrepreneur Alliance, and Director of the China Soong Ching Ling Foundation.

Chen made history as the first Chinese national appointed Standing Member of the Development Cooperation Forum of the United Nations Economic and Social Council (UN ECOSOC). Her prior distinguished appointments include Advisor to the UN Under-Secretary-General for Economic and Social Affairs; Advisor to the Central Policy Unit of the HKSAR Government; Board Member of the Hong Kong Ballet; Member of the Supervisory Committee of the Hong Kong Philharmonic Orchestra; Member of the Committee on the Promotion of Civic Education; Member of the 11th All-China Youth Federation; and Member of the Shanghai and Xiamen Committees of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference (CPPCC).