

Improving Homebound Older Adults' Access to Depression Treatment with Technology and Lay Counsellors

In this presentation, Choi will discuss the processes and outcomes of her intervention studies designed to improve low-income, homebound older adults' access to evidence-based depression treatments through tele-delivery and a scalable task-sharing model.